Well, we've done it! Bolton Wanderers are back in the First Division after a 14-year gap following our 1-0 win over Blackburn Rovers at Ewood Park on Wednesday night.

And what a night it was with thousands of our fans making the short trip over the moors to encourage the side to success.

The victory and the place in the premier grade was the result of a great deal of effort and team work.

It was particularly pleasing that we should do it this season after our near misses in the previous two years.

And it says a great deal for the character of the players that they should be able to lift themselves for a third tilt and pull off the big prize.

The manager tends to get most of the credit in a situation like this, but it has been a partnership at Burnden Park between myself and my assistant George Mulhall.

His grasp of tactics is second to none and at Blackburn on Wednesday, his re-organisation of the team after Willie Morgan left the field injured, was first class.

I must pay tribute, not only to the players, but to everyone concerned in what has happened at Burnden Park.

We have been playing First Division soccer for the last three seasons and I look forward to our campaign next season when the top teams will come to Bolton.

Our fans have been tremendous and I must thank them for their support and encouragement. It was a night to remember at Blackburn and today we can take the title by beating Fulham.

Let's hope it's another memorable day for us all.

Ian Greaves

Today's Visitors

Fulham manager Bobby Campbell managed to salvage a great deal of the Cottager's self respect over the second half of a season that opened in chaos and strife. Board room problems, comings and goings of senior staff including George Burr and a threatened revolt by supporters all took their toll.

Mr Campbell was in an unenviable position as turmoil reigned around him and much credit is due to him that the team didn't completely lose confidence.

He calmed things in the dressing room and, looking back now on a very good second half of the season, we can probably pin-point the turning point to the day when Fulham beat us 2-0 at Craven Cottage in December.

Everyone admits that was probably our worst display of the season. The Cottagers paraded their £50,000 new signing from Scunthorpe, Richard Money, for the first time that day and goals from Ray Evans and Tony Gale gave them a 2-0 victory.

Because of their financial position, Fulham have been forced to sell two strikers and an established defender this season. Striker Teddy Maybank was sold to Brighton for £200,000 and Alan Warboys left for Hull in a £25,000 deal. Central defender Ernie Howe went to local rivals Q.P.R. for £50,000.

Republic of Ireland international Gerry Peyton, the former Burnley player, is now firmly established in goal while, with Tony Gale having taken over from Howe in the middle of the defence, the back four will most likely be Ray Evans, John Lacy, Gale and Les Strong.

Terry Bullivant and John Margerison team up with Money in the middle of the field while we usually have Brian Greenaway, John Mitchell and John Evanson in attack.

Fulham's early-season problems were particularly sad for only last season they were being feted for their outstanding enterprise in signing international stars Rodney Marsh and George Best.

Attendances immediately rocketed from around nine thousand to twenty-five thousand for a while but, though the new players gave outstanding performances, results failed to come and the new fans began to drift away almost as rapidly as they had appeared.

In the end they were a trifle lucky to escape relegation.

It is ten years since Fulham lost their First Division place and quite a lot has happened to them since then. They dropped into the Third Division in 1969 but regained their Second Division place two years later.

In 1975 they reached the F.A. Cup Final for the only time in their history, losing 0-2 to London rivals West Ham United.

Many clubs might have folded under the stresses that Fulham experienced this season. But this is a club that has very many influential friends who are always willing to rally round when things go wrong. Thankfully, there is no chance of Fulham doing an Accrington or a Bradford P.A.

Problems still remain, of course, though the critical stage seems to have passed. Indeed, if manager Bobby Campbell is allowed to keep the side he has put together there must be some sort of chance of mounting a promotion drive next season if they can repeat their performances of the latter part of this campaign.

Their shock 0-1 defeat by Millwall last Saturday was only their fourth League defeat since the turn of the year.

The Cottagers have won five away League games—at Crystal Palace (3-2), Millwall (3-0), Charlton (1-0), Hull (1-0) and Blackpool (2-1). They have drawn at Bristol Rovers (0-0), Orient (1-1), Sunderland (2-2) and Notts. County (1-1).

Stars at Burnden . .

The Peter Thompson testimonial game will be played at Burnden Park on Friday, May 12th between Bolton Wanderers and a combined Liverpool and Everton side.

Kick-off is 7-30 p.m. and Peter (picture on the front cover) is hoping the Wanderers will face a very strong Merseyside line-up with probable players including Tommy Smith, Ian Callaghan, Jimmy Case, Terry McDermott, George Wood, Martin Dobson, Dave Thomas, David Fairclough, Steve Heighway, Duncan McKenzie and Mike. Pejic.

Peter stresses that it will not be a "joke" game. He said: "I am looking forward to a very competitive game that the spectators will enjoy."

Cup Date

Another big date at Burnden is the following day, Saturday, May 13th, when the Wanderers' youth team take on Manchester United in the second leg of the Lancashire F.A. Youth Cup Final. The Bolton boys have a 2-0 lead from the first leg and the kick-off time will be announced later.

Meet the Referee...

KEITH STYLES (Barnsley). — Started refereeing in 1949 and progressed through the Barnsley, Sheffield, Hallamshire and Yorkshire Leagues to the Football League full list. Refereed a League Cup quarter-final in 1971 and a semi-final in 1975. In the same year, refereed the FA Challenge Trophy at Wembley. He also lined a Spain v Russia International in 1971. Married with two children, he is a headmaster. He is a qualified coach and takes an interest in coaching schoolboys.
